

INDIK™ RELEASES EDITION 2.0 WITH ITS A.I. ASSISTED DATA WIZARD & FULL SUITE OF PROPRIETARY ALGORITHMIC KNOWLEDGE OBJECTS (AKO), AN ADVANCED NEW AND INNOVATIVE APPROACH TO IT PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT

Problem that need to be solved

Implementing IT performance management processes involves several difficult choices, especially choosing the correct metrics to use and how to properly organize the data to deliver the insights you are looking to obtain. This step is time consuming, challenging and often leads to choosing the wrong metrics & setup. This produces incorrect information & faulty data, thereby resulting in making wrong & costly decisions.

Our solution

INDIK™ was created to address these challenges, to help companies develop accurate actionable reliable data. INDIK's innovative proven four-step approach guides you through setting up your metrics, processes and dashboards. Focusing on getting you up and running with less input & effort, relying on the INDIK's A.I. Assisted Data Wizard & its powerful proprietary Algorithmic Knowledge Objects to successfully manage the process.

The latest 2.0 version showcases the power of the Advanced AI Wizard, which makes it even easier to capitalize on the power of our proprietary Algorithmic Knowledge Objects (AKO) The AKO are enriched with more than 1000 dashboards and 8000 metrics based on the standards of your industry and best practices. INDIK™ will automatically select the crucial metrics according to your industry and then offer dashboard templates tailored to the needs of the recipient. Producing pre-filled-drop down suggestions highlighting your industry key metrics, no more guessing, or having to go through the long lengthy process of starting from scratch with blank whiteboards.

For example;

INDIK™ also includes an integrated automation process, which supports dashboard production at pre-established frequencies, the content and data can be updated endlessly, without ever having to revisit the initial design stage. INDIK™ will also monitor and track the success of each step and alert you of any issues so they can be addressed & corrected immediately.
